Dear Praying Friends,

We have had another really good month. Since coming home from Montana, we have had some more local trips, and God has been working in great ways. My wife and I have seen God work and build our faith in Himself as He has provided for so many needs in our lives. We are growing spiritually through the trials and test that God has put in our path, and we are excited to see what's next.

It was good to spend a couple services in our home church, and meet up with family and friends. We are seeing new people every time we go back, and we are excited to see what God is doing in our home church. I also had the privileged to lead a lady to Christ as I went soulwinning with my Pastor a couple weeks ago.

We are currently on the road, in Tennessee, where we have a few meetings in the area and then we are off to the New England area for a string of meetings. We should be back to NC in early November based on our current schedule. Continue to pray for us as we are on the road traveling and ministering in the churches that have allowed us opportunity to speak. We are so thankful for the churches we have already been in and all the ways God has used them to provide for our family. We serve an awesome God and we are privileged to be able to do the work of the ministry.

Thank you to the following churches for hosting us recently:

Thank you again for your faithfulness to pray for our family and ministry as we are on the road. We are excited to see our support rising, and we can't wait to be able to move to Butte! As we are learning more about Butte, we continue to see how hard the area is going to be. Please pray for the people of Butte, and that we will have the wisdom needed, in the face of the adversaries of the city.

In Christ,
Dustin, Melissa, Devin, and Lydia Beck
